

Julie Barrett

Julie is the Assistant Head of School. She has worked for the school for twenty-six years, and until recently as the Director of Development. Julie is a parent to three daughters who are Rowland Hall alums. Julie has a B.A. in history and German from the University of Utah. She is very active in the community and sits on the Board of St. Mark's Hospital and the University of Utah Advisory Board. Julie loves to ski, read and travel when she's not involved in her many other responsibilities.