

Kathy Gundersen

Kathy, Director of Admissions at the McCarthy Campus, is in her ninth year at Rowland Hall. She earned a B.A. from Brown University and has completed graduate work at the Universities of Vermont and Oregon. She spent twenty years in Vermont, teaching history and humanities at Burke Mountain Academy, while serving for a number of those years as Director of Academics and College Placement. Kathy and her husband Finn have two sons in college, Lars and Nick, and one dog, Koda, who keeps them heading for the mountains.
