

Shirley Stevens

Shirley is the school nurse. An Illinois native, Shirley graduated from Vanderbilt University with a B.S. degree in Nursing. She began her nursing career in pediatrics, including general pediatrics, pediatric intensive care, and pediatric life flight at the University of Utah Medical Center. After taking time off to raise her children, Shirley continued her nursing career in Urgent/Emergency Care facilities. In 1993, Shirley became Rowland Hall's first School Nurse, caring for Beginning and Lower School students and faculty. She also serves at the Middle and Upper Schools on an as-needed basis. She has served on the Utah School Nurse Association Board for the past ten years, currently serving as President. Shirley likes to spend her free time reading, skiing, hiking and gardening.
