

The Reverend Trace Browning

Trace grew up in Utah and earned his B.A. in Music from Weber State University. He holds a Master of Divinity from Bexley Hall Seminary in Rochester, New York. An ordained Episcopal priest, Trace served as a parish priest for ten years in New York, New Hampshire, and Oregon prior to coming to Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School. This is his fourth year here, serving as the chaplain for the school community, leading worship services for classes Kindergarten through Upper School, and teaching Ethics and World Religions courses to juniors and seniors. Trace loves all kinds of music, and enjoys singing, playing guitar, piano, and drums. He also enjoys reading, cooking, and spending time with his family and friends.
