

Javier Pinedo

Javier is the chess teacher and coach for Rowland Hall. He has taught for twenty-two years, all ages including adults. He earned his B.A. in Secondary Education from the University of Baja California and has several course hours in Special Education from Florida Atlantic University. Javier is a certified chess coach and a nationally recognized tournament director. As a member of the United States Chess Federation, Javier was chair of the Chess in Education Committee in 2000-2002, serving as the vice-chair for eight years. During his free time, he enjoys playing lots of tennis, watching movies and playing videogames.