

Kate Nevins

A lead teacher in the full-day classroom, Katie began teaching at Rowland Hall in 1996. A native of Michigan, Kate traveled west to major in dance at the University of Utah. She later danced professionally with a modern dance company. After years of touring, she settled in Salt Lake City teaching for the Utah Arts Council - Artist in Education Program. She has been a teacher and choreographer for the University of Utah Children's Dance Theatre. Kate has certification from the Montessori World Education Institute. Prior to coming to Rowland Hall she taught kindergarten for eight years in the Avenues Montessori Schools. Kate has two graduates and a son still attending our school.