

Tim SleeperHead Girls' Tennis Coach

Tim has coached the boys' and girls' teams at Rowland Hall since 1997 and been part eight State Championship teams. In 2006, he received the National Federation of State High Schools Girls' Tennis Coach of the Year award. He graduated from the University of Utah with a B.S. in chemistry. He loves coaching and learning from his players as well as personally participating in "anything outdoors." He was married in June of 2007 to Leah, has a birthmark on his left shin, and his favorite color is blue.