

Reagan TolboeDirector of Alumni Relations and Special Projects

Reagan Tolboe, a 1992 graduate of Rowland Hall has a deep passion for the people and programs of her alma mater. Reagan graduation cum laude from Westminster College with a B.A. in Communications and Theater. She has an avid interest in film and music and the arts, and offers astute recommendations and insights on all. Reagan most recently worked as the Development Director and Marketing Manager for the SLC Film Center and prior to that as a Portfolio Account Analyst at Wasatch Advisors, a financial investment firm in Salt Lake City. Prior to working at the school, she served as a volunteer on the Alumni Committee. She currently serves on the board of the Utah Heritage Foundation.