

Ann Till
Latin

Ann just completed her 14th year at Rowland Hall. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Utah in history, with a minor in classical civilization. She has traveled extensively in Asia and Europe and resided in the Orient for twelve years, living in Korea, Japan, and Thailand. Ann has conducted informational, motivational, and self-improvement workshops, and lectured to numerous groups in the United States and the Orient. In 1988, she was keynote speaker at a conference of 2000 women in Hawaii. She teaches sixth, seventh, and eighth grade Latin. She completed her Masters of Education at Westminster College in 2000. In the summer of 2001, Ann was awarded a Fulbright scholarship and a scholarship from the American Academy in Rome to attend summer school for two months in Rome and Cumae, Italy. Ann spent the summer of 2004 in Cyprus and Turkey on a scholarship from the Fulbright-Hays Program sponsored by the U. S. Department of Education. She was awarded the Sumner Family Faculty Award in June 2006. Ann is the mother of three sons. Her interests include travel, reading, decorating, gardening, and aerobics.