

Mary Jo Marker

Mary Jo has been at Rowland Hall since January 1996. Mary Jo received both a Bachelor's and Master's degree in history from the University of Utah. She started as an Upper School history teacher and was also chair of the department. Her courses included American history, Latin American history, and ancient civilizations. Mary Jo moved to the Middle School in the fall of 2000 to teach sixth grade social studies and language arts. Mary Jo is also starting her second year as Middle School Dean of Students. She was the recipient of the 2005 Middle School Sumner Faculty Award. Mary Jo is married to Joel Marker and they are the proud parents of two Rowland Hall graduates. Ellie is in her second year at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota. Alex is in his first year at Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa.