

Ralph SawyerRowmark Kinder Team Coach

Ralph, originally from Seattle, grew up skiing at Mount Baker and ski raced at Steven's Pass for the Steven's Pass Alpine Club and for the University of Washington where he was Team Captain his Sophomore year. After graduating from college in Business Administration, Ralph coached at Crystal Mountain for the Crystal Mountain Athletic Club before moving to Salt Lake City in 1982. While living in Utah, Ralph has taught for the Park City Ski School and has coached for the Park City Farm Team and Learn to Race program. Ralph holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from Westminster College in Salt Lake, is a PSIA Certified ski instructor, a USSCA Certified coach, and a trained EMT. When not skiing, Ralph works in the computer software industry and lives in Salt Lake City with his wife and five year old daughter.