

Tyler Knibbe

Tyler is starting his third year with Rowmark. Tyler grew up in SLC, skiing all over the Wasatch Range. Prior to Rowmark, Tyler worked at Snowbird coaching for seven years and instructing for nine years. He graduated from the University of Utah with a degree in Commercial Recreation Management. This fall he started pursuing a Masters Degree in Education from the University of Phoenix and is working as a substitute teacher at Rowland Hall. In the summer he can be found guiding wilderness whitewater river trips on the Salmon River in Idaho. Tyler also enjoys mountain biking, hiking and taking photos around the west. In the winter, when not setting gates, he enjoys telemark skiing, back country skiing and skiing powder.
