

Chris Kline is a lead kindergarten teacher, teaming with Cindy Feinman. Chris has relocating from South Hampton, New York where he was a kindergarten teacher at The Ross School in Bridgehampton, an independent school. Chris also has public school experience in kindergarten in East Hampton, New York. He received a master's degree in Childhood Education from Long Island University at Riverhead. As an outdoor enthusiast, relocating to Utah is exciting for Chris, and we are excited that in addition to his teaching talents he will also be bringing his extensive musical talents.
