

Sara Dacklin

Sara has fifteen years of teaching experience in grades K-2. This is her seventh year at Rowland Hall teaching second grade. She has a B.A. in Fine Arts and History from St. Lawrence University and an Elementary Education Certificate with an endorsement in History from Westminster College. Sara is currently working toward her reading endorsement and Masters in Education at the University of Utah. She has been a team leader, school site leader, and a mentor teacher over the years. Sara has two children at Rowland Hall. She spends her free time gardening, reading and biking with her family.