

Melanie Mancini

Melanie is enjoying her first year of teaching second grade at Rowland Hall. She has 4 years of teaching experience at the preschool level, and has also taught second grade in the Salt Lake City School District for 5 years. She earned her BS degree in Elementary Education from Utah State University with a Social Studies minor. Melanie enjoys hiking and discovering beaches with her husband and 3 children, as well as reading & Pilates.