

Deborah Mohrman

Deborah is in her twelfth year at Rowland Hall. She has twenty years of administrative experience in private schools and at the university level. Deborah taught for six years at the University of Utah in the Department of Educational Studies, working with graduate students and pre-service teachers. She taught at the elementary level for thirteen years in Utah and Tennessee, teaching grades K-6. She has a B.A. in Elementary Education and a M.Ed. degree in Curriculum and Instruction. Deborah and her husband, Michael, have a daughter, a 2005 graduate of Rowland Hall.