

Matt Burnett:

In his seventeenth year at Rowland Hall, Matt teaches Spanish III, IV and V (Advanced Placement) and also volunteers as the faculty advisor for two student clubs: Amnesty International and Spanish Club. He holds a B.A. in Spanish from Brigham Young University and a Masters of Teaching in Spanish from the University of Utah. Matt and his Spanish students recently received the Angel of Light award for their volunteer work with the Salvation Army. He has led various student trips to Spain, Peru, and Costa Rica. In 2009 Matt received the Sumner Family Faculty Award. Matt and his wife, Valerie, are the parents of Rowland Hall students Guthrie and Hazel.