

Bruce Hunter:

Bruce begins his fifteenth year at Rowland Hall, following his work in college admissions, college counseling, and coaching at schools and colleges in Massachusetts, Ohio, Virginia, and Wisconsin. Bruce holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in English, and he earned an M.A. in Educational Policy Studies from the University of Wisconsin. He served for eight years, including two as President, on the Executive Board of the Rocky Mountain Association for College Admission Counseling, and he has served as a Board member for ACCIS, the Association of College Counselors in Independent Schools. Bruce leads a two-week bicycle trip of colleges and universities each summer for college counseling colleagues from schools around the country, he presents frequently at regional and national conferences, and he's an experienced runner, cyclist, volleyball player, and dog-sitter.