

Kody Partridge:

This will be Kody's tenth year as the 11th grade English and AP Lang/Comp teacher. Kody taught at Butler Middle School for four years before coming to Rowland Hall. Prior to that, she taught writing at Salt Lake Community College. A native of Montana, Kody received both her B.A. in Spanish and Humanities and her M.A. in English from Brigham Young University. While in college she participated in a Study Abroad program in Madrid, Spain and was a foreign exchange student in Honduras. Kody is the 2007 recipient of the Sumner Family Faculty Award.
