

Tara Sinquefield:

Tara begins her fourth year at Rowland Hall in a new role; the Laptop Repair Center Manager. Tara joined Rowland Hall in 2008 as the Upper School Registrar. Before coming to Rowland Hall, Tara spent six years as a Program Director for a small private school for students with special needs. She graduated from East High school and attended college at the University of Utah and Weber State where she studied business management. She spent the next fifteen years working in retail and restaurant management. She really enjoys working with people and loves working with the students here at Rowland Hall. She has two young children, Brody and Marley; a musician husband, and a little white English bulldog named Jojo. She is passionate about animals and reading.
