

Pam Stone:

Pam began her relationship with the Rowland Hall community as a parent and volunteer in 1985. Since that time she has been a substitute teacher, the Library Assistant for eleven years and this year is her fourth year as Assistant to the Athletic Director. Pam has a B.S. in Psychology from the University of Utah and technical degrees in Fashion Merchandising and Barbering. Pam has recently completed a children's book and is now at work on a book about green living. When Pam isn't working in her hair studio or at RH, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, keeping up with her 100 year old home, reading, writing, gardening, walking, and yoga.
