

Kate Taylor:

Kate Taylor begins her third year at Rowland Hall after teaching for two years at Waterford. She has taught at Salt Lake Community College and at UCLA, where she received her English Ph.D. in 2006. As an undergraduate, Kate studied literature and gender studies at the University of Utah. She was born in Salt Lake City, but has also lived in Arizona, Washington, and California. In her spare time, Kate enjoys listening to, playing, and creating music. She plays guitar, mandolin, and fiddle, writes songs, and has been a DJ in community radio for the last five years. An avid vegetable gardener, Kate recently acquired chickens and is now one step closer to that farm she has dreamed about for years.
