

Matthew Taylor:

Matthew began his employment with Rowland Hall in January 2003. A Utah native, Matthew graduated from the David Eccles School of Business in 2001. Considered a jack-of-all-trades, Matthew enjoys solving problems and fixing things. Best known for his love of Halloween, Matthew receives statewide recognition for the design and creation of an annual yard display. Matthew married Nancy Chadwick in September 2006. Together, they enjoy working in their yard, and interacting with their three cats Hooper, Cal, and Roy.
