

Christine Thomas:

A teacher in Rowland Hall-St. Mark's Middle School from 1986-88, Christine returned to Rowland Hall in 2001 to teach Upper School Spanish I and II. She received her B.A. degree in Spanish from Brigham Young University and spent six years in Seattle, Washington teaching Spanish at The Bush School. Christine has had the opportunity to live and study in Spanish speaking countries, and she integrates those experiences into her classroom teaching. Christine is the 2010 recipient of the Sumner Family Faculty Award.