

Lori Miller

Lori started as the Academic Support Counselor for the Beginning and Lower School at Rowland Hall in 2007. Lori brings a wealth of professional experiences. She has been a classroom teacher, a gifted and talented coordinator, an elementary principal, a trainer for reading intervention teachers, and a K-12 language arts curriculum director. She enjoys gardening, reading and traveling with her family.