EXTRAORDINARY LEARNING

Financial Aid Time Line For the 2012-2013 School Year Applicants

First Week In January:

Financial Aid Application materials become available for the next school year.

- For current/returning families, information and materials are available on “The Quad” and on the school web site.
- For families applying for admissions and for Financial Aid, all Financial Aid information and materials are available on the school web site at www.rowlandhall.org/admission.

March 1: Financial Aid Application Deadline (This is also the admission application deadline)

- Deadline to submit Parents’ Financial Statement (PFS) to School and Student Service for Financial Aid. Online at www.nais.org/go/sss
- Deadline to upload all required documents into your SSS account, including:
 - the Rowland Hall Financial Aid application, (available on the school web site and “The Quad”, for returning/currently enrolled families)
 - signed copy of 2011 completed income tax return with all schedules
 - W-2 forms,
 - IRS Form 4506-T. Complete lines 1-4 and sign, but do not date this form and,
 - if applicable, the business/farm form.

Mid - Late April:

- Financial Aid notification letters mailed

Financial aid will not be determined until the Rowland Hall Financial Aid Application, the Parents Financial Statement (PFS), complete federal tax returns and all schedules, W-2’s, form 4506-T, the PFS assessment, and the Business/Farm Statement (if applicable) have all been received for both parents. Priority will be given to those complete files electronically submitted/postmarked by March 1.

The Financial Aid Committee maintains a policy of strict confidentiality concerning all inquiries, applications, and awards. We ask that families applying for and/or receiving aid maintain this policy.
